

PSYCHOLOGY

MID ARCHIVE

Done by:-

Shaden Almatar

Zaid frahat

Psychology

Questions:

1. Freud considered most of human behavior to depend on:

- A. Conscious
- B. Unconscious
- C. Environmental conditions
- D. ID

answer: NOT sure of answer

A woman repeatedly washes her hands after every handshake because she is afraid of contamination, even though she knows her fear is illogical. What is the most likely diagnosis

- A. Phobia
- B. Obsession
- C. Compulsion
- D. Delusion

answer: C

3. After he got fired from his job, he started saying that "everyone is watching him through the ceiling lights." What type of delusion is this

- A. Persecutory delusion
- B. Referential delusion
- C. Grandiose delusion
- D. Nihilistic delusion

answer: A

4. The selection of language and speech tone is an example of which communication element

- A. Encoding
- B. Decoding
- C. Message
- D. Channel

answer: A

Questions:

5) According to Freud, which part of the personality operates on the "pleasure principle"?

- a. Ego
- b. Superego
- c. Id
- d. Preconscious
- e. Conscious

answer: C

6) A man perceives signs and ticks on television as being specifically directed at him. What type of delusion is this?

- A. Persecutory delusion
- B. Referential delusion
- C. Grandiose delusion
- D. Erotomanic delusion

answer: B

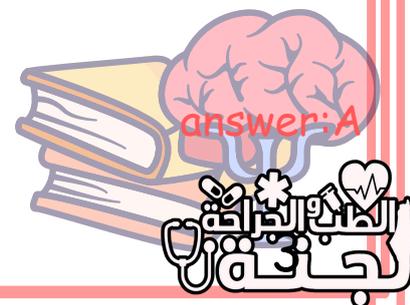

7) A patient at the clinic repeatedly says "bye bye bye" and "hi hi hi" while the doctor is asking questions. What type of speech problem does this represent?

- A. Clang association
- B. Flight of ideas
- C. Blocking
- D. Word salad

answer: A

8) Which of the following is self-actualization?

- A. Experience one's peak potential and growth
- B. Feeling of belonging
- C. Well thoughts about yourself
- D. Feeling of freedom

answer: A

Questions:

9) What is the main difference between psychosis and neurosis ?

- A. Mood swings
- B. Hallucinations
- C. Anxiety
- D. Obsessive thoughts
- E. Phobias

answer: B

10) A 40-year-old woman is firmly convinced that she is pregnant, despite multiple negative pregnancy tests and an ultrasound showing no fetus. She has even started preparing clothes for the baby. She refuses to accept the medical evidence. What is the most likely psychiatric diagnosis?

- A. Obsession
- B. Somatic delusions
- C. Illusion
- D. Over valued idea

answer: B

11) Which stage of grief the patient feels intense loss and tendency to lonely ?

- A. Denial
- B. Anger
- C. Bargaining
- D. Depression
- E. Acceptance

answer: D

12) All of the following are true about people with psychoses except

- A. feel helpless with their lives
- B. Loss of contact with reality
- C. Unaware of psychological causes
- D. Their situation come with stress

Psychology

Questions:

13)After failing his exam, he says, "The professor hates me anyway" He is using :

- a) Reaction Formation
- b) Rationalization
- c) Repression
- d) Intellectualization
- e) Undoing

answer:B

14)The phase that Therapist & client work cooperatively & together to : address problems and implement interventions

- A. pre interaction
- B. Orientation
- C. Working
- D. Termination

answer:C

15A daughter is angry at her mother, but then she accuses .her mother of being the one who is angry ? What defense mechanism is this

- A. Projection
- B. Reaction formation
- C. Denial
- D. Rationalization

answer:A

16.A person has experienced a traumatic event but is unable to recall any .details of it

?Which defense mechanism best explains this response

- A. Denial
- B. Suppression
- C. Repression
- D. Regression
- E. Displacement

Psychology

Questions:

17. A teenager releases his anger through boxing. What is the defense mechanism?

- A. Displacement
- B. Sublimation
- C. Projection
- D. substitution

answer: B

18. During therapy sessions, a patient consistently changes the topic whenever the psychiatrist brings up childhood trauma. Which defense mechanism is most likely at play?

- A. Repression
- B. Suppression
- C. Denial
- D. Displacement
- E. Projection

answer: B

19. A woman was recently fired from her job. Instead of searching for new employment, she spends most of her time imagining herself as a famous actress. Which defense mechanism is she using?

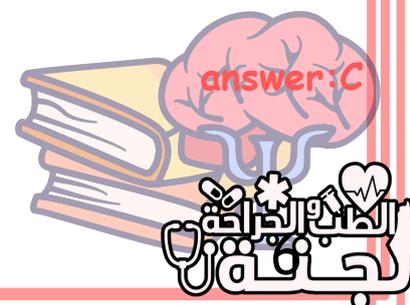

- A. Denial
- B. Projection
- C. Fantasy
- D. Rationalization
- E. Sublimation

answer: C

20. A wife, whose husband died 3 months ago, is still leaving an empty place for him at dinner everyday. This defense mechanism is

- A. Isolation
- B. Undoing
- C. Denial
- D. Compensation

answer: C

Questions:

21. can't imagine how it hard can be, but Im here for you this resemble

- A. Smpathy
- B. Respect
- C. Empathy
- D. Trust
- E. Genuineness

answer:C

22. A girl is sitting completely still with no movement, no emotion, and n' : response to people around her. What is this condition called

- A. Catatonia
- B. Stereotypy
- C. Stupor
- D. Retardation

answer:A

23. A patient is observed pacing back and forth repeatedly without any clear purpose. The movement is non-goal-directed, repetitive, and .appears to be done in a fixed pattern

?What is the most appropriate term to describe this motor behavior

- A. Mannerism
- B. Stereotypy
- C. Echopraxia
- D. Ambivalence

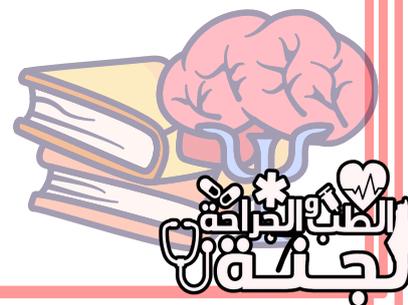

answer:B

24. A patient reports hearing the voices of his deceased parent speaking to him, even though no one is present

?What does this symptom most likely indicate

- A) Delusions
- B) Hallucinations
- C) Obsessions
- D) Illusions

answer:B

Questions:

25. A patient consistently does the opposite of what is asked or expected ? from them. What is this behavior called

- A) Echolalia
- B) Negativism
- D) Echopraxia
- E) Mannerism

answer: B

26. A patient repeatedly rearranges his desk and keeps checking whether ? the door is locked or not. What does this behavior most likely indicate

- A- Compulsion
- B- Phobia
- C- Delusion
- D- Obsession
- E- Stereotypy

answer: A

27. A patient was talking continuously and suddenly stops mid-sentence .unable to continue speaking for a moment before possibly resuming ? What is this phenomenon called

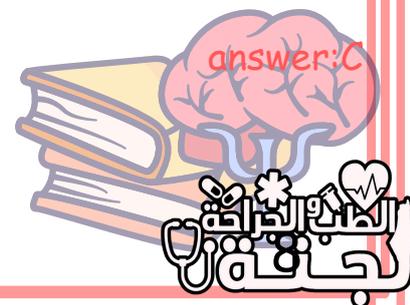

- A- Mutism
- B- Blocking
- C- Echolalia
- D- Aphasia

answer: B

28. A patient presents with an abnormally elevated mood, high energy .levels, reduced need for sleep, and little interest in eating What is the term that best describes This exaggerated positive emotional ?state

- A- Anxiety
- B- Anhedonia
- C- Euphoria
- D- Over activity

answer: C

Questions:

29 So you're saying .. example of

- A. Paraphrasing
- B. Summarizing

answer: A

30 Example of leading question Don't you?

Don't you think that the meeting is too long

31. A doctor enters a patient's room without permission and raises his voice while inside

: This behavior demonstrates a lack of

- A- empathy
- B- trust
- C- rapport
- D- Respect
- E- genuineness

answer: D

32 What is the process of converting ideas of sender into signals called

- A- Decoding
- B- Encoding
- C- Feedback
- D- Noise

answer: B

33. Example of non verbal communication ?

- A. Nothing of head to show agreement
- B. Writing an email
- C. Reading a report in a loud voice
- D. Write feedback

answer: A

