

CNS-pharma

Archive

Lecture9

Neurochemical basis of behavior &
Drug therapy of schizophrenia

Corrected By :

Malak alqadi

Regarding haloperidol, all of the following are false EXCEPT:

- A. Causes profound agranulocytosis
- B. Causes significant weight gain
- C. Has fewer motor side effects
- D. Can lead to noncompliance due to EPS
- E. Improves cognitive function

Answer: D

A patient started on antipsychotic medication develops acute dystonia with involuntary winking and oculogyric crisis. Which of the following drugs is the most likely cause?

- a) Haloperidol
- b) Clozapine
- c) Risperidone
- d) Olanzapine
- e) Quetiapine

Answer: A

