

MSS - Anatomy

Archive

Lecture 6

Face 2

Done by :

AyaAyman

Corrected by :

Hakeem

Anatomy - lecture (6)

One of the following nerves doesn't the upper eyelid :

- A - Supratrochlear.
- B- Supraorbital.
- C- Infratrochlear.
- D- Infraorbital.

Answer: D

The platysma muscle is supplied by which nerve?

- A. Marginal mandibular branch of facial nerve
- B. Cervical branch of facial nerve
- C. Transverse cervical nerve
- D. Great auricular nerve

Answer: C

Which of the following nerves supplies the upper lip?

- A. Supraorbital
- B. Infraorbital
- C. External nasal
- D. Supratrochlear
- E. Infratrochlear

Answer: B

Anatomy - lecture (6)

Which nerve provides cutaneous sensation to the upper lip?

- A. Infraorbital
- B. Mental
- C. Buccal
- D. Supraorbital

Answer:A

A woman had surgery in the parotid gland, and the facial nerve got injured. Which of the following results is false:

- A. inability to close the eye
- B. In laughing or showing the teeth, the mouth deviates to the normal side
- C. accumulation of food in vestibule of mouth
- D. in laughing or showing the teeth the mouth deviates to the injured side
- E. lacrimation

Answer: D